

Mr. Ernest Mawuli Agbesi is a Banker by profession. He has an MBA, a Post Graduate Diploma (P.GD) and a Diploma in Accounting. He started his banking career in 1986 with the then Ghana Co-operative Bank Limited (in liquidation) rising to the position of Deputy Manager in January 2000. He joined International Commercial Bank in 2000 where he became a Divisional Head in 2006 in charge of Sales & Business Development, Estates and General Services and Retail Banking. He joined UniBank (Ghana) Limited in January 2008 where he was Head of Sales & Business Development and later Head of Banking Operations where he supervised the organic growth of the Bank until his appointment as the Managing Director of the National Investment Bank Limited in March 2014. He was the Board Chairman of Nestle Ghana Limited as well as Chairman, Board of Directors of First Ghana Savings and Loans Company Limited. He has excelled over the years in the banking sector with his vast experience.